Deputy Sheriff John Knox
Single-Handed Brings in Eighty-Four Men.

ALL TRIED TOGETHER

On the Charge of Obstructing and Destroying County Road at Wallace.

Single handed, Deputy Sheriff John M. Knox made a wholesale arrest of eighty-four men at Wallace Saturday morning and brought them to Magistrate G. H. Gordon's court in this city to be heard on the charge of obstructing and defacing a public highway.

The men are all employees of the Hope Natural Gas Company and their arrest was the outgrowth of the laying of a pipe line in a county road near Wallace. The complaint in the case is by J. W. Looman.

Deputy Sheriff Knox had no trouble whatever in arresting the men. He read the warrant to the foreman in charge of them and he and his men at once submitted to arrest and accompanied the officer to the city. They all came in at the Short Line train arriving at noon. At 1 o'clock in the afternoon the case was taken up by the magistrate.

Nature of the Trouble.

The state authorities contend that the company and its employees in this instance are violating the law, having no right to obstruct and destroy the public highway or to use it for pipe line purposes.

On the other hand the claim is advanced by the company that it holds a franchise from the county court to use the public highways for its pipe lines and that the road will be placed in good condition after the laying of the line is completed.

All Are Held.

The hearing was concluded at 3 o'clock and Magistrate Gordon held all of the men for the action of the next grand jury under bonds of $100 each, which they furnished.

THE "REFORM" TICKET

Tax Payer Tells What He Thinks About the City Administration.

Editors the Daily Telegram:

I want to compliment this paper, also the Harrison County Herald, for the stand they are taking against the gamblers.

There has not been a day or night passed since the election of the present mayor and chief that there has not been gambling in full force and they are as well aware of the fact; also does the little News know the same.

I was talked to day and night to vote the reform ticket and was told that if that ticket was elected all gambling and bad women would be made to leave the city. I went to the convention at the court house and saw them nominated and the street superintendent said after he got the nomination if he was elected he would throw no gold bricks around. O, no, but he has thrown plenty of dust and mud bricks.

So this was the reform ticket I was talked into voting for. If the three were put into a box together, shaken up good, God only knows which would come out first. So there you are in a nut shell.

Thank God, no more reform tickets for me. Please publish this.

BROADBODUS BOARD TO BE INCREASED

Trustees Accept the Plan
Suggested by the Baptist General Association.

Broadbodus Institute will have fifteen trustees after October next year. The board of trustees at a meeting here Friday evening acquiesced in the plan suggested by the West Virginia Baptist General Association, which will increase the present number, eleven, to fifteen. The proposed trustees are to be divided into three classes and they are to hold office three years, the arrangement being to elect five every year. The general association will nominate three persons for every yearly position to be filled on the board and the board itself will officially elect one from the three nominees for every place to be filled.

The board did some routine work in connection with the new building in course of construction at Philippi and transferred the office of treasurer from Homer D. Doughner, lately of this city, but now of Denver, Colo., the new treasurer being R. E. Talbott, of Philippi.

CITY WATER SUPPLY IS AGAIN EXHAUSTED

Pumping System Suspended
Until Another
Stagnant Pool is Found.

The city water supply was again exhausted Saturday morning as a result of the long drought, and it became necessary to suspend operations at the city pumping station on the West Fork river.

For some time Superintendent Callaghan has had to resort to auxiliary pumps and pipes for the purpose of pumping water from pools in the river down to the pumping station. These pools are being rapidly exhausted and it is necessary to extend the auxiliary pipes farther and farther up the river. Another such extension had to be made Saturday morning.

Superintendent Callaghan is negotiating with the owners of the West Millford dam in the West Fork with the object of getting the supply of water behind that dam down to the pumping station.

She was brought to jail Friday afternoon late by a constable following her commitment to the asylum by Justice of the Peace Martin, of Lumberport. The woman was violently crazy and a close watch had to be kept upon her to prevent her from harming herself. While in the jail she had to be tied to a cot and an attendant had to keep a constant watch upon her.

THE HARVARD-YALE GAME

Conference is Being Held in

TRADE IS NOT BRISK
And the Waiting Game is Very Much in Evidence at the Factories.

The movement of window glass in to consuming channels during the last week could by no stretch of imagination be characterized as brisk, says the Commoner and Glassworker. The waiting game is still very much in evidence and, until more stable conditions are apparent, the market is likely to lag. Hand-to-mouth buying appears to be the rule in most localities and comparatively few good-sized orders are being placed. Rumors of a dissatisfaction among the workers are still rife, but factory operations in the main continue as usual.

Very little has occurred lately to change conditions regarding the Johnston-Case organization project. The promoters had a fairly satisfactory trip through the West Virginia district and while they have very encouraging reports from most of the factories, there are still a number of concerns representing several hundred pots that have given no definite answer.

On October 23, as will be remembered, the manufacturers appointed a committee on organization and as they have held no meeting since their appointment, they decided to hold a conference at the Fort Pitt Hotel, Pittsburg, yesterday and go into the situation thoroughly. If they consider it advisable to hold a general meeting the time will be fixed, but if conditions do not warrant a general meeting, the matter will either be deferred or abandoned. The meeting was held too late for publication of details in this week's issue.

DEPART OR DIE
IS COMMAND

Given by the Black Hand to Citizens of the County of Randolph.

ELKINS, Nov. 21.—Members of the Black Hand organization or persons purporting to be members of that organization, are busy in this community and have sent threatening letters to John Collier, of this city.

Several years ago Mr. Collier left Elkins and went to Texas where he resided for some time and the reason he left was because his life had been threatened. Thinking that the parties who had threatened him had either forgotten him or they had left the country, Mr. Collier moved back to Elkins a few weeks ago and has been making his home with his father, W. H. Collier.

Thursday he received a letter signed with a skull and cross bones which stated that if he expected to remain for any length of time he might expect his life as the penalty which the alleged Black Handers would inflict. Mr. Collier's father also received a letter which stated that if he continued to harbor his son his dwelling and barn would be destroyed and if in the destruction of the same his life was taken the cause would be advanced that much more.

The reason assigned for the enmity which the Black Hands hold against Mr. Collier is that he was a member of a jury which returned a verdict of guilty against one of the members and on account of that verdict the member had been sentenced to a life term in the penitentiary. Mr. Collier has never been a member of any jury which convicted anyone of the crime of being a member of the Black Hand society or any other criminal society for the excellent reason that no such case has ever been tried in Randolph county. And although this fact was made public before his departure for the West, the person or persons who wrote the letters gave it no heed and continued and still continue their persecutions.

When the first letters were received, the people of Elkins generally speaking looked upon the affair as a practical joke, but since Mr. Collier's return and the letters have been sent again, the citizens have ceased to regard it as a pleasantry and are very much incensed that persons are allowed to perpetrate such actions. The public sentiment is with Mr. Collier and if any violence is attempted the blackballed will find out that they are living in a civilized community and not amid the hills of half civilized Calabria.

The county authorities have some clues which point to certain parties and they are making a thorough investigation of the matter. It is quite likely that they will appeal to the county government for assistance and if they do so the Postal Department will detail a special detective to investigate the alleged criminal conspiracy.

"3rd. Such amendment to the ordinance containing the same as well as resubmitting the proposed or pending ordinance."

EMPEROR'S TALK
NOW PUBLISHED

Suppressed Interview Given Hale is Made Public by the New York World.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—What purports to be an absolute, accurate and authentic synopsis of the interview obtained from Emperor William by Dr. William Bayard Hale, and subsequently withdrawn just as it was about to appear in the Century magazine, is printed in the World today. The main points of the Emperor's interview follow:

That King Edward and Great Britain have been humiliating him for more than two years and have got to stop it; that Germany is a paramount power of Europe; the Kaiser held France in the hollow of his hand, and that Russia was of no account since the disastrous war with Japan. Great Britain was declared a decadent nation ever since her victory over Transvaal and Orange Free State, and that despite the Anglo-Japanese alliance, Japan has been honey-combing India with sedition and flooding it with spies.

The only way to counteract this alliance, the Kaiser said, according to the World, was for Germany and America to act together at an early date, or America would have to fight the Japanese in ten months.

WET COUNTY

Is That of the Late John Sherman to Remain as Voted by the People.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 21.—By a margin of 44 votes, Richmond county has decided to retain its saloons, 62 number, 45 of which are in Mansfield, the county seat.

Mansfield gave a vast majority of 1,398 and only two of its 14 precincts voted dry. Shelby, which had voted wet before, went dry today by 93. It has ten saloons. Every town and village in the county and every one of the thirty county precincts but four went dry. The campaign had been a bitter one.

Mansfield is the home of the late John Sherman.

Insists Murphy Did His Best to Help Defeat Democratic Nominee.

A NEW DEMOCRACY

Outside of Tammany is Another Novel Theory of the Many the Peerless Has.

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 21.—Mr. W. J. Bryan hands Tammany a warm bunch of language in today's Commoner.

He says:

"Mr. Murphy, the head of Tammany, says that Tammany did the best it could for the Democratic national ticket. There's the rub. If Tammany had been treacherous it might promise to be faithful next time, but as it did the best it could, what hope is there next time?"

"If Tammany did the best it could and could not carry the city of New York for the Democratic national ticket, several questions arise:

"First. Was it the fault of the candidate?

"Second. Was it the fault of the platform?

"Third. Was it the fault of Tammany?"

Another Democracy

"Or, Fourth. Is there a New York Democracy outside of Tammany?"

"If the Democratic candidate was objectionable to Tammany, the remedy is to nominate a candidate next time who is satisfactory to Tammany—provided, of course, that is all that is necessary to insure a Democratic victory. If it was the Democratic platform that was objectionable the remedy is easy—let Tammany write the next Democratic platform; provided, of course, a Tammany platform will insure a Democratic victory.

"But if it was the fault of Tammany, the reason is more difficult. How is Tammany to be reformed? If Tammany will not support the Democratic ticket and platform when the ticket and platform are satisfactory to the Democrats of the nation, what is to be done?"

Time to Organize.

"And if there is a Democracy outside of Tammany that must be reckoned with, is it not time for that Democracy to organize itself and make itself known, so that the national Democracy will have something with which to co-operate?"

"Up the State the Republicans tried to create hostility to the ticket this year by charging that Tammany was supporting the ticket, and outside of New York the support of Tammany was used as an argument against the ticket. Is the national party to have Tammany used as an argument against it, and when Tammany is powerless to help the national party, even when it does its best?"

"Will Tammany explain?"

SERMON

By the Rev. Homer Bumgardner is Praised by the Raleigh Herald.

The Raleigh Herald makes the following mention of a sermon by the Rev. Homer S. Bumgardner, formerly of Smithfield but now stationed at Beckley:

Last Sunday evening the Rev. Homer S. Bumgardner, of the Methodist Episcopal church, preached on the subject, "Woman the Glory of Man." He was listened to by a large and attentive audience, mostly women. His eulogy of woman was fine, his presentation a splendid appeal to the virtue and intelligence of the fair sex, and at times he was theatrical in his delivery. A hen pecked citizen who sat in the rear was heard to whisper: "Just wait until that young preacher has been married six months."
